

May 23rd, 2008

Solve a Mystery Over Dinner - If your meals are getting a little boring, why not add some suspense to your culinary experience? The EPS Theater Group of Hong Kong premieres "Deadly Night: A Murder Mystery Dinner Extravaganza," which will run at several luxury hotels over the next few weeks. Enjoy an elegant four-course dinner as you watch the fast-paced drama unfold around you, where everyone is a shady suspect in a violent murder.

The show incorporates interactive improvisation and scripted scenes, and audience members can even take on a minor role and help solve the crime. A special drinks menu is also available with a selection of beers, long drinks and fine wines. Show dates are May 23 at the Marco Polo Hong Kong Hotel, May 31 and June 28 at the Intercontinental Grand Stanford. Tickets $600-$1,300 depending on location and include the show, a four-course dinner, and a welcome drink. Call 2407-9090 for tickets or visit www.murdermystery.hk.