Murder Mystery Hong Kong tours to Bangkok, Thailand

The cast and crew of MURDERMYSTERY HONG KONG are setting sail for SIAM...

After wowing audiences in Hong Kong, people in Thailand can look forward to a night of mayhem and thrills at the fine SHANGRI LA BANGKOK's award winning Italian Restaurant Angelini from November 6 to November 8 for three nights only. (Thursday, Nov 6; Friday, November 7; Saturday, November 8, 2008).

This is the beginning of what is hoped will be a regional tour by Asia's premier murder mystery team.

Dirk Bocklage, Director of Murder Mystery HK / EPS Group HK noted, "Every week here in Hong Kong, we see how our Murder Mystery shows transcend generational and cultural boundaries. This tour to Bangkok is our way to give live audiences a unique experience they have never had before. Part of our mission is stimulating all the audiences' senses and these tours to South-East Asian countries continue to play a key role in fulfilling that vision. We want everybody to have a great time!"

Miles Pennypincher, the shifty owner of a tavern called "The Cooked Goose"; his desperate and dutiful wife Agnes; the secretive and sexy Lucy Flawless; the narcoleptic ex-criminal Charlie; and the degenerate opium dealer Tim Twist; are all suspects in the murder of sweet, innocent Sarah Dorritt. Has someone assembled them all tonight to take revenge on her killer? Or has she returned to seek vengeance? A fast paced, hilarious, and deadly tale of secrets, lies, and revenge! Whodunnit? There's only one way to find out.

There are murderous looks at the COOKED GOOSE TAVERN in Hong Kong. The Proprietor MILES PENNYPINCHER has sailed to SIAM hoping to get away from the stress of the murder investigations and the constant naggings of his wife. It's a steamy adventure by the canals of Bangkok and there are bodies floating downstream and up.

See you in Siam (Thailand that is).

Murder Mystery Asia is a unique live performance that offers a chilling opportunity for ordinary and unordinary people with a yearning for cold blooded mysteries... twist & turns...devious clues... and ingenious detective work to indulge them in one of the most unusual, exciting, and spine tingling experiences they've ever had.

The combination of interactive improvisation and scripted scenes means the guests are free to get involved as little or as much as they like, creating the perfect blend of theatre, fun, involvement to provide entertainment to die for.

TICKETS

Tickets cost THB2,880 – including the show, a delicious 4-course dinner and a special welcome drink.

SHANGRI LA HOTEL BANGKOK

This five-star luxury Riverside hotel features 799 well-appointed and equipped rooms, each adorned in a Thai-inspired theme, featuring soft furnishings from silk and awe-inspiring views of the Chao Phraya River. Adjacent to the hotel is Saphan Taksin Skytrain station and Sathorn Pier, from where it is easy to reach many popular areas in the city, as well as exploring the riverside where many of Bangkok's classic attractions are found.

Its well-equipped business centre is popular with executives, and for those needing a base while holidaying in Bangkok, the hotel has an abundance of recreational choices like a fitness centre, Tibetan spa, and gorgeous outdoor pool area set in a tropical garden. Numerous dining options excel in providing mouth-watering cuisine from around the globe, popular with guests and visitors alike.

BEHIND THE SCENES

Starring: Mike Brooks, Shiona Carson, Fiona Kaaka, David Oxley, and Michael Pizzuto

The directors of EPS Group have been producing Murder Mystery dinner theatre entertainment in Germany for the past 3 years. Deadly Night in 1898 is the company's first show in Hong Kong - the first of many.

Artistic Director Robert Tsonos is originally from Canada but his career has taken him to London, Venezuela, Tokyo, and Hong Kong. He recently directed "Elisa's Skin" in Caracas, "Night Mother" at the Etcetera Theatre in London, and "The Goat" at the Hong Kong Fringe Club.
